

Armand Pohan

Mr. Pohan has been the chairman of NY Waterway since 2002 and is actively involved in the management of the business, which operates over 30 ferryboats on New York Harbor.

Mr. Pohan is also the current chairman of Steamship Mutual Insurance Company, a UK mutual insurance company which insures fleets of ships all over the world. He began his career as an Assistant Prosecutor in Hudson County, N.J., and at the Newark law firm of McCarter & English, where he became a partner at age 32. After eight years in the private practice of law, Mr. Pohan joined A-P-A Transport Corp., serving as president for over 20 years.

Mr. Pohan has been an elected Councilman in the Borough of Fort Lee, N.J., since 2002, and is a member of the Borough's Planning Board and Film Commission. His nonprofit leadership includes seven years as president of the board of the Dwight-Englewood School and 14 years as treasurer of the Fontainebleau Associations, an organization that supports French music and architecture studies at the Chateau de Fontainebleau outside Paris.

Mr. Pohan is a graduate of Harvard College magna cum laude, and of Harvard Law School.