

Leslie Mattingly

Ms. Mattingly is an attorney, mediator, advocate for environmental and historic preservation, and musician. Throughout her career, she has been active in a large variety of civic and charitable issues, including civil rights and child abuse prevention.

For over a decade, Ms. Mattingly served the court system in Madison, Indiana. She was a Master Commissioner, Assistant Judge and Judge Pro Tem. She currently serves as a trustee of the Georgia Conservancy and has served as a member of the Advisory Council of the St. Simons Island Land Trust since 2004. In 2013, she was appointed to the Conservation Trust of Puerto Rico's Advisory Council.

From 2003-2012, she served on the Coastal Marshlands and Shore Protection Committees of Georgia's Department of Natural Resources. In 2001, Ms. Mattingly also served as a member of President George W. Bush's committee to interview and recommend nominees from the State of Georgia, for the positions of Federal Judge, U.S. Attorney, and Federal Marshall.

She was the founding president of the Coastal Symphony of Georgia Society and served as a member and officer of its board. Ms. Mattingly was a member of Rotary International from 1991 until 2006 and twice served as president.

Certified in domestic and civil mediation, and arbitration in Georgia, Ms. Mattingly holds both a B.S. degree, in Business Administration and a J.D. degree, in Law, from Drake University. She is the recipient of numerous honors and awards, including recognition by Georgia Trend Magazine as one of the Most Influential Georgians, and the City of Anderson, Indiana's Key Award, their highest honor. Ms. Mattingly is a vocalist of classical music and has performed as soprano soloist with the Coastal Symphony Orchestra of Georgia.