

Armand Pohan

Mr. Pohan has been the chairman of NY Waterway since 2002 and is actively involved in the management of the business, which operates over 30 ferry boats in New York Harbor.

Mr. Pohan is also the current chairman of Steamship Mutual Insurance Company, a UK mutual insurance company which insures fleets of ships all over the world. He began his career as an Assistant Prosecutor in Hudson County, NJ, and at the Newark law firm of McCarter & English, where he became a partner. After eight years in the practice of law, Mr. Pohan joined A-P-A Transport Corp., serving as President for over 20 years.

Mr. Pohan served as an elected Councilman in the Borough of Fort Lee, NJ, from 2003 to 2017, and still serves as a member of the Borough's Planning Board. His nonprofit leadership includes seven years as president of the Board of Dwight-Englewood School; 14 years as Treasurer of the Fontainebleau Associations, an organization that supports French music and architecture studies at the Chateau de Fontainebleau outside Paris; and 4 years as Treasurer of the Friends of Fort Lee Film, Inc. Mr. Pohan is a graduate of Harvard College magna cum laude, and of Harvard Law School.